AT 24 LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS

Graham Dunning KC

Graham Dunning KC is a leading specialist as an advocate and arbitrator in substantial international and commercial disputes.

Graham has appeared in the Supreme Court, the Privy Council and in all levels of the English courts and in international arbitrations globally. His clients have included states and state entities, banks, major commercial corporations and high net-worth individuals. He acts as lead counsel in major international arbitrations, including investment arbitrations in Washington, Stockholm and Paris and substantial international commercial arbitrations (e.g. ICC, UNCITRAL, LCIA, LCIA India, SIAC, SCC, DIAC) in seats across the world concerning a wide range of industries, including finance, insurance, mining, oil and gas, commodities, energy, transport, construction and manufacturing.

Graham frequently sits as arbitrator in international arbitrations of all kinds, having been appointed in more than 90 cases. He has extensive experience of disputes relating to investments in oil and gas, mining, international trade in all types of commodities, energy and infrastructure, as well as shareholder disputes.

From 2013-2017 he was Co-Head of Essex Court Chambers, after which he resumed full time practice.

Graham is widely recognised by directories and has been listed for over 21 years with recognition as a leading expert on international arbitration, Band 1, International Arbitration: Arbitrators and the “International Arbitration Silk of the Year” by Chambers Bar Awards 2014.
